

Join your clients' signing, from anywhere!

Scheduling conflicts, traffic jams, and endless stacks of paper on closing day are distant memories for signers and their representatives who use remote online notarization. Signing and notarizing online keeps you connected to your clients in real-time through every step in the process and provides a better experience for everyone involved.

Real estate agents, title agents, mortgage brokers, loan officers, escrow officers, and closers can all participate. This is how to get involved:

1

Plan to Participate:

- Participants interested in joining the notary meeting should notify the facilitating title company or lender
- Each participant will be identified during the meeting with their name and role.

2

Get Notified with Each Step:

Each closing participant will receive real-time email notifications when:

- They are added as a participant in a transaction
- Documents are available for signers to preview
- The notary meeting has started and participants are able to join
- The signing is completed

3

Join the Notary Meeting:

- Participants can join the notary meeting with signer(s) using a computer, tablet, or smartphone with video, audio, and in-meeting chat capability, or
- If participants are not attending but needed for a quick question, signer(s) can easily connect others to the notary meeting via phone call with one easy click!

Your clients have enough to do on closing day. Relieve some stress, provide flexibility, and give them the precious gift of time when they need it most.
